

The Gulf Coast Gateway

If you move international products through the Gulf Coast corridor, the most logical place for your business is about 25 minutes southwest of Houston, Texas.

- Foreign Trade Zone approved by U.S. Department of Commerce
- Freeport tax exemptions available for qualifying inventory in some areas
- Multiple Rail Lines and Intermodal Rail Center
- Seamless Integration of Truck, Rail and Ship
- Direct Access to U.S. and Mexican Ports

For cost efficiencies, logistical speed and a pro-business atmosphere, the Wharton-Rosenberg area should be at the top of your list. Visit either city's website to find out more!
